

So what energies can be solved in general ?

Energies transformable into GraphCut problem

- Each state of original variables encoded using multiple binary variables
- Designed the way that the energy under this encoding is submodular
- The solution obtained by solving st-mincut and inverting the encoding

